A Little Extra News from No Limits!

Greetings in the Matchless Name of Jesus!

I know it's only been a couple of weeks since we sent out our last newsletter, but there are a couple of recent developments we wanted to let you know about before Viv leaves for France on Wednesday (16th).

Early on Wednesday morning he will be leaving for the city of Lyon, where he will be spending time with a number of pastors from all over France. He is scheduled to speak twice around the subject of their national project M2. M stands for 'multiplication' and the aim is that every church plants a church; every leader reproduces a leader; and each disciple makes a disciple. We are very excited to be a part of this initiative at ground level (this is the first forum for this project).

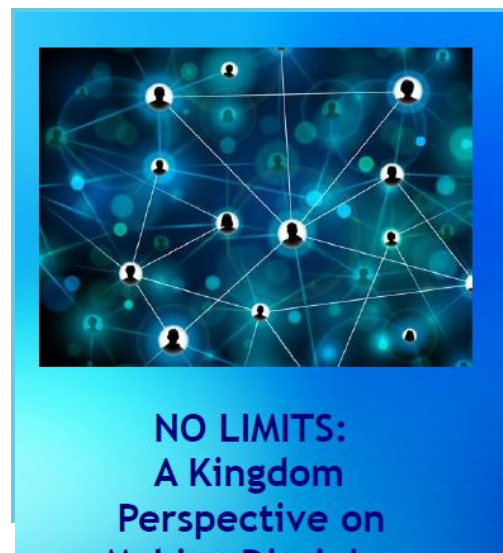

So, on to our recent developments:

Firstly, we're really excited to unveil our brand new website, which is now live at www.nolimitsmissions.co.uk. Please feel free to go and take a look - you'll find information on our projects, and all our newsletter back editions. If you have any suggestions for improvement, please reply and let us know!

Secondly, we are pleased to report that Viv's book is now published and available. The title is "No Limits: A Kingdom Perspective on Making Disciples".

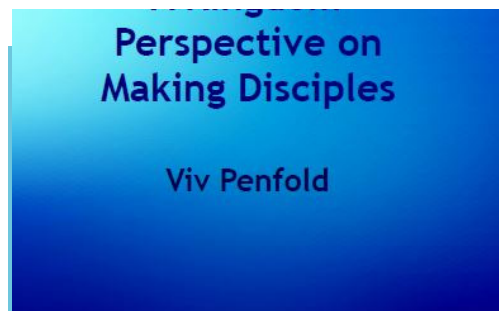

It is available on Amazon at the exorbitant cost of £6.95 (to cover Amazon charges) - Click here to visit the Amazon page.

It's also available direct from our website at £5.00 (With options available to order with worldwide shipping). - Click here to order a copy.

Alternatively, you can wait until you see us and get one at the print cost of £3.00.

If you already have your copy, we'd really appreciate your help by leaving us a review on the book's Amazon page. To leave a review, simply visit the book's page here and add your comments.

Thanks once again for your partnership and fellowship in the gospel.

God Bless You All Abundantly

Jean & Viv
